A Continental

Aaron Benjamin joined the army in 1775 at age 17 and remained on active duty until the war ended in 1783. Among his service he was part of the Canada campaign, was stationed at Valley Forge, and fought in the battles of White Plains, Princeton, Monmouth, Germantown, Fort Mifflin and Stony Point.